Sir:

DOCKET NO. SC13130TP

REMARKS

In a communication mailed July 28, 2005, claims 1, 4-11 and 13-29 were allowed. The Examiner provided a statement of reasons for allowance. Applicants respectfully dispute the accuracy of the reasons for allowance which indicated a primary reason for allowance of the claims being related to a single limitation. In addition to disputing the accuracy that novelty exists only from the identified limitation, there are independent claims within the allowed claims that do not contain the limitation identified as a primary reason for allowance. In addition to disputing the Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance, Applicants continue to submit that the collective recited combination of elements in each of the allowed claims is distinguishable over the prior art made of record and allowance is not predicated on only one particular limitation of the allowed claims.
